

Respect for the Environment

Our commitment to caring for the environment consists of:

- Compliance with the current environmental regulations.
- Annual measurement and certification of our organizational carbon footprint.”
- Annual measurement and certification of our transportation carbon footprint (associated with the transportation of our products from our processing plant to the destination markets) and the respective compensation of the greenhouse gas emissions with the purchase of carbon credits.